

V6 COVER CROP FIELD DAY

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 21, 2018

1:30 – 3:30 PM

FIELD LOCATION:

4th Avenue and ¼ mile north on Arthur Road
Near St. Libory, NE

UNDERSTANDING SOIL HEALTH

See a demonstration plot established to evaluate successes of different cocktail mixes at V6 stage of growth (knee high) in commercial corn.

SPEAKERS

-Dean Krull, UNL/CPNRD Demo Project Coordinator

*Why V6, what was planted, what emerged, what survived.

-Aaron Hird, NRCS State Soil Health Specialist

*Discussion and evaluation of soil health in field.

-Teri Edeal, NRCS Conservationist Agronomist

*Soil health evaluation procedure, dormant seeding benefits.

-Keith Berns, Green Cover Seed

*Different planting periods, species that work in V6 strategy.

Interrow seeder will be on site.

For field directions contact Dean Krull (402) 469-0155 or dkrull1@unl.edu.

If weather is unfavorable, field day will be moved to Ken Seim's shop at 1324 6th Rd in Chapman.